Parent Information Sheet

All scholars will receive online/remote instruction until September 4, 2020.

Face to face instruction for those parents who selected this option will begin Sep.8th. Those that selected remote learning will continue with online instruction.

Face to face instruction at Jose H. Damian Elementary is based on guidance from health officials and will include:

- Physical distancing
- Signage discussing physical distancing, handwashing, masks, face shields and precautionary safety measures
- Temperature screenings for scholars and staff
- Masks and face shields for staff and for all scholars
- Frequent disinfecting of classrooms and all areas of the campus
- Changes to arrival and dismissal procedures
- Fewer students in all classrooms (12:1)
- All school visitors will be admitted by appointment only.
- Please familiarize your children with COVID safety guidelines and practice procedures frequently, prior to the beginning of school.

Remote Learning guidelines:

- Actively engaged participation and attendance is required to assure students' success in quality instruction.
- All students will be responsible for attending online sessions at the times assigned and must follow student code of conduct.
- Grading and attendance will be recorded for accountability.

All information is subject to change as updates from State and local officials become available

Jose H. Damian Faculty and Staff want to assure parents that we will do our best to help scholars stay safe and healthy. We do ask that you become aware that you are a HUGE part of these efforts and hope that you fully understand that we are facing times that we have not had to face before and will have to do things like we have never had to do before.
